CLINTONIA
honors three

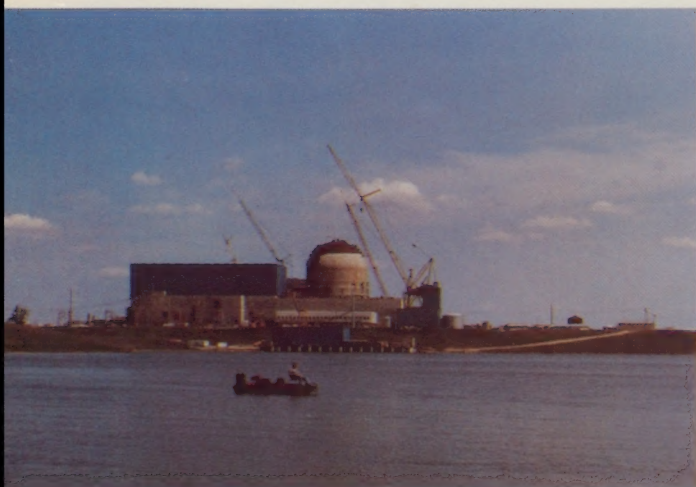

The Yearbook is dedicated to three very special people who have earned the love and respect of not only the seniors and the Clintonia staff, but members of the student body, faculty, administration, and community. It is with great pride that we dedicate the 1982 Clintonia to Mr. Richard M. Glasson, Mr. Patrick Henry, and Mrs. D. Ann Jones.

Mr. Glasson was born in Capital Falls, Michigan, the youngest child in his family. He attended school at Northern Michigan University, the University of Michigan, Eastern Illinois University, and ISU, where he studied English and Spanish. Mr. Glasson has been fortunate enough to enjoy several interesting positions—City Editor of the Flint Journal, English teacher at Cumberland High School, and a building contractor in Michigan and Illinois. Amateur radio, writing, golf, reading, designing homes, and reciting poetry are several of his hobbies. He and his wife Carolyn are the parents of six children.

Mr. Henry was born in Mendota, Illinois, the middle of five children. He graduated from Joliet Junior College and Illinois State University, where he studied math and administration. He spent one month in Bogota, Columbia, before returning to Chicago to attend photography school. Mr. Henry has also worked in several interesting positions. His career has included time in the Army Reserves, a position as a coin collector for Illinois Bell, and a truck dispatcher for Johnson & Johnson Baby products. He and his wife Joan have two children. Joan describes Mr. Henry as a “very gentle and considerate person, one who always puts his family and job before himself.”

Mrs. Jones grew up in Hot Springs, Arkansas, and attended Hot Springs High School. Mrs. Jones was a cheerleader and Hot Springs High School Homecoming and Sweetheart Queen. She attended University of Central Arkansas in Conway where she was voted best actress. She was also a member of Delta Zeta Sorority. Anyone watching Romper Room in Paducah, Kentucky, could have seen Mrs. Jones as the teacher. She was said to be and still is a very good “Do-Bee” Mrs. Jones has one daughter, Wendy, a student at U of I.

Clinton is a city rich in history. One of the oldest structures is the Homestead, constructed in 1863 by John and Minerva Moore Bishop. The house contains a two-story high library with a vaulted ceiling, a delightful child's room with a doll collection, a restored 1880 kitchen, a music room, a farm and railroad museum, a carriage house, and The Kent Museum which also contains WWI weapons and Indian artifacts. The Martin Sprague Memorial Bridge is located in the lower pasture and connects the Homestead to the adjoining grounds.

The Illinois Power Company is building a 950,000 kilowatt nuclear power plant that is scheduled to begin producing electricity in late 1982 or early 1983. The plant is located 6 miles east of Clinton.

The famous Vandenberg statue of Abraham Lincoln is located in the northwest corner of the courthouse square. The statue commemorates the famous Lincoln speech delivered in Clinton in 1848.

The winter of '82 dumps 70 inches of snow

The Winter of 1982 was one that will long be remembered. A total of over 70 inches of snow was accumulated over a period of three months. School was closed at least once a week, and every other day promised some "sleep-in" time. The blizzards seemed to make everyone feel like partying, and it was evident when Tom Moss slid into the pond at Violet Valley, and when Stacey Goodall slid off the road on the way to Maroa. Fender benders, stalled cars, and tow trucks were common sights this winter as were sweaters, bandanas, moon boots, and "down" jackets.

Pontiac

Clinton's

Dashes

Homecoming brings all the CCHS students closer together with the competitive drive of float building and the hopes of winning the traditional football game.

Coach Labuary prepared his players well for the game against Pontiac, and Clinton looked somewhat promising the first half with an 8-6 lead. Junior Monkman scored a touchdown, but Clinton didn't have enough momentum to pull through the second half. The final score was Pontiac 27, and Clinton 8.

Even with the chilling loss to Pontiac, and an even chillier evening, the CHS Spirit couldn't be cooled.

Homecomers dance to Powdermill Hill

From 8-11 on Saturday evening students and their guests and several members of the alumni gathered in the gymnasium for the annual Homecoming Dance.

At promptly 9:30 Queen Paige Wagner and her escort Marty DeJaynes, a Clinton graduate from the class of 1979, danced the traditional Queen's Dance. Powdermill Hill, from Charleston, Illinois, provided the music for the evening.

Juniors place first with "Skunk 'Em"

Traditionally, CHS classes spend hours building floats to compete with one another. The "dedicated ones" spent most of Spirit week going to homerooms and urging their classmates to help build their floats. As usual, the bulk of the work was accomplished during the wee hours of Homecoming morning. Last minute touches were added just prior to 3:00, when the band struck up the first notes of the school song.

By the end of the parade the judges had made their decisions. Juniors placed first with "Skunk 'Em." The sophomores were second with "Jail 'Em." The seniors came in third with "Smoke 'Em," followed by the freshmen with "Smash 'Em."

Sophomores are second to none

Members of the Class of 1984 won second place this year in the Homecoming Parade with their float, "Sentence Pontiac to a De-feat." Later in the fall, sophomores organized a raffle to raise money for the class treasury. Winners of the raffle received groceries from I.G.A. Bruce Walden won $100 in groceries, Bessie Chandler $75 and David Rainwater, $50. David Todd won $20 for selling the most tickets.

Rivalry runs rampant

Junior-senior rivalry has run rampant throughout the entire year. The "We can yell louder than you" contest began with the first assembly. Then the spirit rock was won by the seniors, only to be spirited away by the juniors. One day the spirit rock appeared in the show case defaced. Word was out that the juniors planned to turn the rock into "spirit nuggets."

At another assembly the juniors arrived armed with newspapers. During the spirit competition the juniors "pretended" to be disinterested in the contest and quietly read their newspapers. On yet another occasion several members of the junior class mafia appeared from behind the bleachers to inspire their class members. The seniors blew away their confidence though by winning the spirit rock.

REMINISCING

Two hundred and twenty-nine freshmen entered CHS in the fall of 1979. Modular scheduling and benches were “in,” and study halls were a thing of the past (or so it seemed). During the summer the stadium burned, and when students returned in the fall, they were sophomores and on their way to becoming upper classmen.

A dear friend and classmate, Stanley Moore, died tragically in December of 1979. Several other class members found their way to the altar; Tina Chapman, Kim Lombom, Gary Stroud, Rhonda Mix, and Sharon Woodbury chose to share their lives with others.

In 1980, the traditional system made its return to CHS. Over the next three years “free time” became nonexistent, and the term “commons” became a forbidden word.

The years seemed to melt away, and May 28, Graduation Day, became a reality for one hundred and fifty-seven seniors.

Congratulations are in order for the newly inducted members of National Honor Society.

The 1981 Clinton High Football team showed much improvement over the last year's team. Even though their record was 0-9, they had a very strong defense, which for awhile was ranked #1 in Central IL.

The team did see some changes, however. Geary Labuary, formerly of Windsor, Missouri, arrived to coach the Maroons.

In March of 1981 the team members started lifting weights in preparation for the upcoming season. Players then reported for double sessions in August. According to Coach Veith "A lot of improvement was evident this season; they should have a winning team in 1982."

C.H.S. had team members named to the Corn Belt Conference second-string: Kip Hoke, Tom Kreuser, Gary Stauffer, and Steve Perring.

At the 1981 Fall Sports Banquet Kip Hoke received Most Valuable Player and Best Offensive Player, Craig Brendley received Most Improved, Tom Kreuser received Best Back, Steve Perring received Best Defensive Player, and Garel Schumaker received Best Hustler.

The 1980 team gave up a little over 50 pts. a game and averaged about 6 pts. per game. The 1981 team gave up a little over 22 pts. per game and averaged about 18 pts. per game. Seven underclassman started on the varsity team.

Labuary improves

The freshman Maroons played a season of very close games and finished with a 5-4 record. Also, Doug McDonald rushed for 1,000 yards, and Mitch Conn threw six touchdown passes. Among other top freshmen are Bobby Case, Paul Murphy, Ted Plunkett, and Dan Matthews. As a whole, the team worked hard and played a tough season.

Plunkett and Dorow break school records

Clinton's Cross Country team finished the year with two wins and eleven losses. The team placed third in Districts and sixteenth in Sectionals. Tom Plunkett broke Arnold Mattingly's 1980 record of 15:15. Tina Dorow broke the girl's record of 19:17 set by herself with an 18:17.

Golf team swings into a new season

The Clinton Golf team of 1981-82 had eight consistent golfers. They compiled a record of 5-16 and placed fourth in Districts at Mahomet. Clinton golfers placed fifth in the Corn Belt Conference. Senior Rodney Woolridge was chosen captain for the season. Alex Calvert was voted most valuable player, and he advanced to sectionals at U-High in Normal. This is Coach Triezenberg's second year as golf coach.

Lettermen hope to furnish weight room for athletes

The Lettermen's Club uses all of its profits for the athletes. Meals during out-of-town games, equipment that isn't budgeted, and motel bills for overnite trips are some of the ways the money is spent.

This year Mr. Lehman and the club members made over $1,000 profit through the soda machines and the concession stand. Lettermen are considering a walk-a-thon next year to raise more money to finish the weight room for athletes.

Volleyball team takes 1981 Districts

This year's Volleyball team has progressed further than any other Volleyball team at CCHS. They played Wapella, Argenta, and Maroa in the District games and came out champs by defeating all three teams. The team members got along well and played great together.

Special awards which were voted on by the team players and given out during the fall sports banquet went to the most valuable player, Paige Wagner; best spiker, Denise Torbert; best server, Stacy Ritchie; best setter, Cindy Bush; 110%, Pam Fry.

Mrs. Connie Mahoney has been head Volleyball coach at CCHS for the past four years. Her record as head coach is 40 wins and 59 losses. Her final record for 1981 is 14 wins and 13 losses.

The Clinton Maroon Basketball Team finished the 1981-1982 season with a record of four wins and twenty-one losses. Included in the season were a tournament win and a regular season win over Farmer City, a regular season win over Wapella, and a win over Downs Tri-Valley in the regional.

While winning only four games was disappointing to all involved, plans were made for improvements in the future. The team was young and inexperienced with only two seniors seeing significant action. Tom DiMartino and Alan Gowler, non-lettermen before this year, displayed the type of attitude and leadership that was helpful to the younger players.

With the experience gained this year and with considerable work in the off-season, Clinton Basketball will show a change for the better in 1982-1983.

Softball team finishes 21-6

The freshman baseball team finished the season 1-6. Leading hitter was Scott Fairfield with a .364 batting average. Ken Billingsley had the most hits of the season with 8. The only winning pitcher this year was Mitch Conn who defeated Lincoln 5 to 3. He held Lincoln to only 5 hits and struck 10 out.

The sophomore baseball team was coached by Mr. Burger, a first-year teacher. The sophomores finished the season with an 8-10 record. John Hartness and Jeff VanValey each had one homerun. Steve Lobb was the year's top hitter with a .400 batting average. Kelly Rueger was the top pitcher with 4 wins and 3 losses.

The varsity team ended the season with a 9-16 record. They had three players named to the all conference team—Alan Gowler, Ken Sumner, and Russell McCown. Alan Gowler was also the player with the best batting average. Russell McCown had the best pitching average.

Clinton's Boys' Track team, although a young team, had quite a few medal winners this season. Gary Stauffer received a 1st in high hurdles in the conference meet along with David Cisco who received a 1st in high jump and Joe Daugherty who received a 1st in shotput and discus. In the District meet David Cisco received a 2nd in high jump, and Joe Daugherty received a 2nd in discus, which qualified both of them for the state track meet. State Awards were given to David Cisco and Joe Daugherty. Joe also received most improved, Tom Plunkett received most valuable and honorary captain, and Gary Stauffer received team captain.

Senior Stars—(front to back) Nancy Stephenson, Jill Dougherty, Cindy Bush, Cheryl Sturgeon, and Denise Torbert.

The Clinton girls 1982 track record was 5-1. The girls defeated Warrensburg, Gibson City, Argenta, Fisher, and Heyworth. The most valuable player this year was Cheryl Sturgeon, who qualified for State in the high jump. By the end of the year, four school records had been broken. Cindy Bush, Jill Dougherty, Paige Wagner, and Paula Junkert set a new school record of 2:01.2 for the 800 medley relay. This record was broken at the Clinton Carnival. Both Angie Woods and Roxann Sobolewski broke the 100 meter hurdles record with a 16.7. At the Clinton Carnival Cindy Bush, Jill Dougherty, Cheryl Sturgeon, and Paige Wagner broke the 1600 meter relay with a 4:18.9. Finally, Denise Torbert broke the discus record with a 98' 9" throw. At the end of the season, the Conference standings were in first place, Pontiac with 59 points; second, Eureka with 42 points; third, Metamora with 39 points; fourth, Clinton with 38 points; fifth, a tie between Olympia and U High with 37 points; and seventh, Central Catholic with 7 points.

Sixteen girls were selected as the 1981-82 cheerleaders for CHS. Usually cheerleaders fall into three groups—freshman, sophomore, and varsity. This year not enough girls tried out, so the 16 girls were divided into two squads—junior varsity and varsity. The girls were under the leadership of a new sponsor, Mrs. Beth Romack.

During the summer of 1981, the varsity team attended Smith Walkridge Camp at the University of Illinois, and the junior varsity girls attended the WCC camp. The varsity girls won five superior ribbons, the spirit stick, the spirit rock, and a plaque for the best overall squad. The JV girls also won two excellent ribbons and a superior ribbon.

Cheerleaders are selected from a group that includes graduating cheerleaders, parents, teachers, and previous advisers. The girls spend two to four hours each week practicing before they spread the "Maroon Spirit" to all of the Clinton fans.

“M” Squad sparkles and shines

The “M” Squad has participated in a number of events and several parades this year. Members also performed at the Corn Bread and Bean Festival in August and held a pompon clinic in which 150 girls participated.

This summer the girls went to two different camps. At Half-Time USA the “M” Squad won the honor of “Best All-Around Squad” for the fourth consecutive year. Debbie Bostwick was named Miss Half-Time USA, Pam Fry was runner up to this title, Angie Woods was named All-Star, Kathy Massey won an Honorable Mention, and the squad returned with numerous individual ribbons. The “M” Squad adds a little extra sparkle and shine to the half-time entertainment.

This year the National Honor Society selected two members, Julie Olson and Pam Wood, to enter the National Honor Society scholarship award contest. Each chapter was to select two people; from these entries the National Headquarters in Washington, D.C. then chose ten winners. Each winner received a $2,000 scholarship. The National Honor Society community project was to help with the blood mobile. Also the group attended Conklin's Dinner Theater in the spring. The Honor Society sponsored the spring induction in April, followed by the annual spring carnival in May.

Council sponsors assembly

Forty-five Clinton High School students were elected by their homerooms to participate in the student council activities this year. Tom Plunkett was elected president; Matt Fink, vice-president; Blair Brommel, treasurer; and Susie Milton, parliamentarian. Each homeroom has a representative who may bring suggestions to the council. The student council meets every two weeks and is in charge of the homecoming events. Besides sponsoring this activity, members also sponsor the annual Christmas dance. This year the student council sponsored Freedom Jam, a rock group from Florida.

CLINTONIA

Meets Deadline

The 1981-82 Yearbook staff worked many long hours to put together "All the World's a Stage."

Putting together a yearbook with 13 "professional" editors became hectic when Mrs. Wunderlich had to keep pushing to meet each deadline. With help and encouragement from

Mrs. Wunderlich, members of the staff learned to think up new ideas and edit their work.

Clintonia students were so eager to finish the yearbook they came before the class started and refused to leave when it ended (That's an 'inside' joke).

Six journalists publish EXCALIBUR

Eight students started out the year working on the Excalibur. After mid-year graduation only six remained to write and type copy and paste-up the paper. Editor Julie Olson and Annie Case took a self-taught "quickie" course in photography and added numerous photos to the layouts. Lara Chapman provided the narratives for the Excalibur. Members of the staff read her stories early to find out her "surprise endings."

Julee Thompson and Judy Taylor were the trivia experts. Bobby Davis was in charge of varsity basketball copy. Bobby took a good deal of teasing about his being the only guy in class second semester and about his lengthy and numerous telephone calls to the previous Clintonia editor.

Crystal Boyer, who graduated mid-term and went to work at I.A.A. was the business manager.

Kirk Sommers and Tobi Spilmon spent one semester with the class.

A highlight for the year was a trip to the Clinton Journal to see the backshop operation.

The Thespians are an active group of talented students. Each year an All-School Talent Show, a playwriting contest, and a Children's Theatre is sponsored by the Thespians. This group has also participated in the Illinois Theatre Festival. Major productions performed by the Thespians include: "Picnic," "Our Town," "Hello Dolly," and Drama and Donuts, a series of one-act plays. The Thespians will close out the year with a banquet and then go to Muncie, Indiana, this summer for an International Thespian Conference. The Thespians bring a touch of culture to the community.

The Future Homemakers of America is a very active organization. In December members held a canned food drive. Each morning FHA members collected canned foods from the home-rooms. Then the food was given to the Exchange Club to give to needy families. Through the year FHA organized many activities to raise money for the annual Sweetheart Dance. Among these activities were a bake sale, a popcorn sale, and a rock-a-thon.

Officers: Mrs. Baum, sponsor; Connie Pister, president; Sheryl Clark, historian; Traci Golden, vice-president; Diana Tomes, secretary; and Kris Boesdorfer, treasurer.

FFA officers attend convention in Kansas City

One highlight of the year was the FFA officers' trip to the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, where they were presented a silver emblem award for Chapter activities and a bronze emblem for Building Our American Communities.

The Chapter served as host for Greenhand and Chapter Degree initiation with Maroa and Farmer City, parked cars, and conducted a farm animal petting zoo at the Apple and Pork Festival, and won the parliamentary procedure contest, also held at Clinton. The Clinton Chapter also served as host for the Section 16 meat identification and carcass judging contest.

Roger Clark served as Section 16 reporter and Matt

Fink was Section secretary.

The FFA Alumni was organized to aid the Chapter with activities including the chapter plot, judging contests, community service activities, and FFA week events.

An added heritage activity was the presentation of the American and Illinois flags at each varsity basketball game. Energy activities included operation and display of the alcohol still, making of solar collectors, and collecting aluminum cans. No-till corn was produced on part of the chapter plot.

The hard working Chapter officer team has made this a busy and successful year.

Library Club sponsors school store

Members of the C.H.S. Library Club, sponsored by Mrs. Simmons, work throughout the year assisting Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Simmons shelving books, and keeping the library neat and orderly. Members also sell school supplies to students and teachers.

The club attended the Illinois Student Librarians Association at Normal Community High School last fall. The spring meeting was held at C.H.S. with nearly a 100 students attending.

Art Club participates in Art Room 13

The Clinton Art Club sponsored many activities during the year. One was a workshop sponsored by the Art Club and the Thespians. During the workshop Art Club members taught third, fourth, and fifth graders to make clay sculptures, experiment with printmaking, and construct wire sculptures. In November the Art Club started Art Room 13, a life size sculpture of an art room. Nancy Steinmeyer, a Chicago artist, coordinated the project. The exhibit was held in Springfield during the end of March and the beginning of April. Besides all of these activities, the Art Club screen printed t-shirts for plays and organizations and also made posters for the school district. Pages 148 and 149 cover Youth Art Month activities, exhibitions and the Rembrandt Society State Convention.

Secretaries' Club increases membership

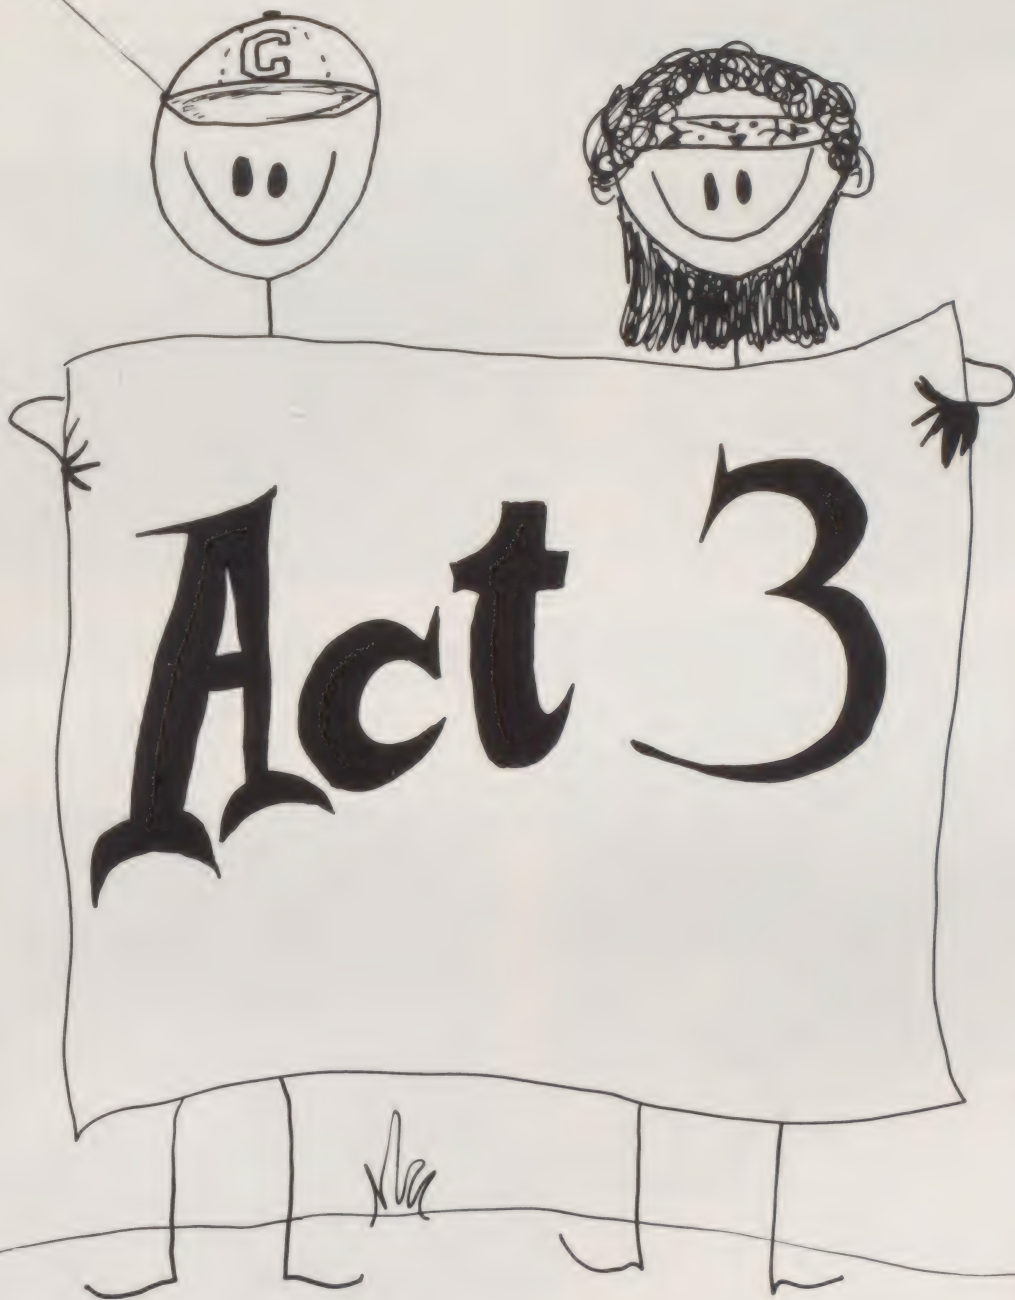

The Super Secretaries' Club was organized last year to encourage and develop interest in the growing secretarial and clerical fields. This year the club has grown to 47 members. Activities for this year included a pizza party, a legal secretary presentation, a CPS program, a make-up and fashion lesson, and a Christmas Tea.

Outstanding students receive honors

On Tuesday, May 11, an all school assembly was held to honor students at CCHS for various achievements accomplished during this school year.

Carolyn Glasson, counselor, presented NEDT certificates to freshmen, Robert Case, Todd Fatheree, Cami Lobb, Bruce Nixon, Jill Peckingham, Ted Plunkett, Jerry Shaw, and Deanna Taylor; to sophomores Debbie Armstrong, John Hartness, Laura Mulcahy, and Kathie Plunkett. Illinois State Scholars recognized were Cindy Bush, Darcy Eikenberg, Tom Glasson, Regina Isaac, Tom Kreuser, John Latham, Julie Olson, Tom Plunkett, and Pam Wood.

Darcy Eikenberg was awarded the Century III Leaders' Competition certificate, Jamie Kline won the Son of Veteran to U. of I., Tom Plunkett won full tuition to SIU, Tom Glasson won a partial scholarship to IWU, and Pam Wood won International Thespian and PTA.

Tom Glasson, John Latham, and Tom Kreuser received certificates denoting their special status as National Merit Commended Students.

Juniors Shelley Bell and Chad Hoke received Mr. Perkins's "I Dare You."

Mr. White introduced the Jets Team winners: Scott Gualtney in engineering graphics, Tom Plunkett in physics, and Cheryl Short in English.

Mrs. Arnold presented the art awards (See pages 148-149).

Athletic Director Ed Byrd presented Athletes of the Year Awards to Tom DiMartino and Denise Torbert; scholar athlete army awards went to Kenny Sumner and Regina Isaac.

Mr. Wylder presented the special math contest award to John Latham.

Pam Wood chose Angie Martinek to receive the traveling "Broken Mirror" award for 1982.

Mr. Perkins announced Cindy Bush and Barry McIntosh as the DAR and SAR winners.

John Latham received the Bausch and Lomb Science award and a certificate of merit from the Illinois Science Teachers' Association.

Thespian awards were presented by D. Ann Jones to Eric Weaver, Darcy Eikenberg, Tom Moss, and Phyllis Coon.

Mr. Prather presented FFA Foundation awards to Curt Utterback, Rodney Hunt, Mike Shinneman, Mark Haas, Paul Jones, Rick Burk, and Matt Fink.

Lisa Mitchell, editor, announced the 1982 yearbook dedication. D. Ann Jones, Patrick Henry, and Richard Glasson shared this honor.

Outstanding students from each department were named: Agriculture—Mark Haas; Art—John Williams; Business—Stacy Ritchie; Social Studies—Tina Dorow; English—Julie Olson; Foreign Language—Darcy Eikenberg; Home Economics—Connie Pister; Industrial Arts—Steve Short; Mathematics—Pam Wood; Music—David Cisco and Tom Moss; Dramatics—John Williams; Physical Education—Kip Hoke; Science—Cindy Bush.

Rhonda Mix Campbell and Dorothy Jackson received the Road Runner award for four years of service to the Guidance Department.

Cheryl Sturgeon and her date, Mike Cyrulik, were two of the 150 people who were brave enough to get out on the dance floor.

Quint Stephenson and his date, Laura Hunt, are joined by Tony Lenchner and his date, Margo Laramie, during a break in the dancing.

What a ham!!!

The traditional Christmas Dance was held this year as always, but the attendance was lower than usual. One hundred and fifty students out of 650 attended the dance. "Pulsar" provided the music for the evening.

Most of the people sat around and very few got out on the dance floor. In fact the evening progressed so slowly that Mr. Coon "sent the band home early."

Freshman candidates with their escorts: Von Bandy, Margo Laramée, Joe Daugherty, Christy Chamberlain, John Koshinski, Wendy Volker, Tom Plunkett, Paula Junkert, Chad Hoke, and Beth Dougherty.

Thespians stage Picnic

Rosemary, portrayed by Tina Dorow, takes a swig of bootleg whiskey from her beaux Howard, played by Tom Moss.

Lisa L'Hote, portraying Madge, kicks off her shoes and relaxes as she finishes the first act.

The actors listen for further instructions.

The CCHS Thespians performed Picnic for their fall production this year. Two newcomers, Lisa L'Hote and Steve Devore, magnificently portrayed the romantic leads, Madge and Hal. The play was well attended both nights, and the entire production was a wonderful learning experience.

John Williams concentrates as he relaxes between scenes.

Hal, played by rookie star, Steve Devore, demonstrates his masculinity for one of his many women.

Mrs. Owens, played by Darcy Eikenberg, comforts her troubled, beautiful daughter, Madge.

Two couples are on their way to Harmonia Gardens.

Hello Dolly was one of the greatest plays ever performed by the actors and actresses of CCHS. The sets, lights, choreography, and music were the best ever. The cast was supported by many different individuals making the entire experience a fantastic success. The play was directed by D. Ann Jones.

Horace, Barnaby, and Cornelius sing "It takes a woman."

CHS welcomes foreign youths

Ricky Paguirigan and Gulla Nilsson

Richard Alvin "Ricky" Paguirigan from Quezon City, Phillippines, arrived at Clinton High School in August of 1981. He finds living in this country quite different from living in the city. "In the Phillippines," Ricky says, "houses are simple, the people are simple, and work is simple." He is especially impressed with the importance of "cleaniness" in the American family."

Ricky doesn't especially care for all of his subjects but enjoys all of his teachers and classmates. He is very pleased to be a Youth for Understanding student and to learn about the culture in the United States. When he returns to the Phillippines, he will have learned to be more independent.

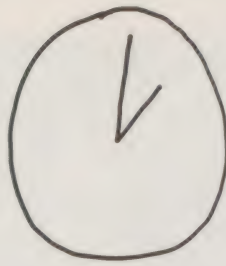

Gunhild Nilsson, better known by her friends as "Gulla," arrived at Clinton High School for the 1981-82 school year from her native Mauoe, Sweden. Her American parents are James and Joan Perrin.

Gulla feels there are many advantages to being a Youth for Understanding student—getting along with other people, learning different cultures, learning a new language, and participating in various activities.

In Sweden a person has to wait until he is 18 to get a driver's License. Gulla thinks this is a big disadvantage to young people. The school system is also quite different. After nine years of compulsory school, students can choose between working or going on to a secondary school.

Gulla's hobbies are traveling, swimming, jogging, and going to concerts, but she dislikes hard rock.

JUNIOR Class

One summer day in 1992 on the newly opened resort at Clinton Lake, we find KRISTY THOMAS and TERRI SCOTT lying out on the beach reading beauty magazines. As we tune in on their conversation. . .

Terri, "We have a lot more business than we had last year."

Kristy, "Who'd have thought 10 years ago I would be running a dating service?"

Terri, "Who would have thought 10 years ago I would be your accountant?"

Kristy, "Guess who came in yesterday asking about how our system works?"

Terri, "Who?"

Kristy, "TOM GLASSON! United States President JULIE OLSON appointed him Secretary of Defense."

Terri, "Who did you match him up with?"

Kristy, "We haven't found anyone yet, but were still looking."

Narrator: As they relax, they notice people running towards the water. The lifeguard runs out and saves a young child from drowning.

Kristy, "Doesn't she look familiar, Terri?"

Terri, "Yeah. That's CHRISTY NEWLUN. She's been working here since the resort opened."

Kristy, "You know who else has been working here since it opened?"

Terri, "Who?"

Kristy, "JEFF MARVEL. He's parking cars. I always thought he'd be good with cars."

Terri, "I saw JOHN LATHAM drive up in his Rolls last Tuesday. I hear he made millions on his new Robot that does windows."

Narrator: As they flip through beauty magazines, we hear Terri say. . .

"Kristy, look at this model. Isn't that KAREN EDWARDS?"

Kristy, "Yeah, it is. And beneath the picture it says 'Photos by EDDIE HUBBELL.'"

Kristy, "I went to see the play 'The Life of a Lonely Lover' Saturday. You'll never guess whom the two main characters were played by. ERIC WEAVER and PAM WOOD."

Terri, "Isn't that weird that they would end up working together?"

Narrator: A couple of minutes later. . .

Terri, "I went to this new dance studio the other day. KIRK SOMMERS and LONDA CLARK were teaching the class."

Kristy, "Yeah, I heard about that. I also heard that TOM MOSS was writing the music for them."

Terri, "I figured Tom would be doing something like that."

Kristy, "You remember how DARCY EIKENBERG used to hang around with them all the time? Well, I saw her on the news the other night. She's the weather woman now."

Terri, "She's working for WKLT T.V. now, isn't she?"

Kristy, "She's been working there for the past five years now."

Terri, "I heard WAYNE CUNNINGHAM owns that station."

Prophecy

Kristy, "Yeah, he took over after TOM RODDEN decided to sell out."

Terri, "JUNIOR MONKMAN is working at that same station as sportscaster."

Kristy, "I didn't know that. Speaking of sports I heard on the radio that JILL DOUGHERTY, CHERYL STURGEON, and CINDY BUSH are training for the Olympics."

Terri, "They were always so athletic in school; that doesn't surprise me much."

Kristy, "I also heard that TOBI SPILMAN now holds the record for doing the Rubik's cube. Her score was 4.304 seconds."

Terri, "She was working on that in Mr. Harden's Accounting class every once in a while our senior year."

Narrator: Flipping through the beauty magazines we hear Kristy say. . .

"Terri, listen to this. It's the gossip column. The letters are addressed to CINDY 'RONA BARRET' LORD. This one says. . .

Dear Cindy,

I'm so sick of working as head librarian. I just get tired of saying 'Shhh.' all the time.

And it's signed SHELLY TAUBERT."

Terri, "I can see where Shelly is tired of that. Look at this ad down here. It says. . .

COME TO TERRY'S NIGHTCLUB
LIVE MUSIC EVERY WEEKEND

FEATURING "NATURES THIEF"

It says the owner is TERRY VONDREHLE."

Kristy, "Do you know who the band members are? DAVID CISCO, KENT ROBINSON, BRIAN ROLOFSON, STEVE DEVORE, and GARY STAUFFER. And TOM DIMARTINO is still the manager."

Terri, "They had that band when we were in school. It's funny that they're still together."

Kristy, "I read in the CLINTON EVENING POST that DEBBIE KILLOUGH (HAAS) just gave birth to another boy. She married MARK HAAS and has three boys now."

Terri, "I heard he's a really successful farmer now and CRYSTAL BOYER is his secretary."

Kristy, "Yeah, I heard he has six different farms now all over Illinois."

Terri, "Debbie was telling me that her oldest son came home and told her his teacher is PAIGE WAGNER."

Kristy, "Didn't she say that's what she wanted to do at the Homecoming Assembly?"

Terri, "It seems like that's what she said. And speaking of secretaries, ANGEL WILKINSON is working for this photographer who wrote a letter to the yearbook class. She said she was going to ask if he needed one, and evidently he did."

Kristy, "I hear he's the one taking pictures for the armed forces. HELEN JONES, BONNIE RUBLE, and JEANNETTE RUBLE all went in together."

Narrator: Minutes later when a frisbee flies by, we see

MARK SULLIVAN bend over to pick it up.

Terri, "Hey, isn't that Mark Sullivan?"

Kristy, "Yeah. Hey Mark!"

Mark, "Hi Kristy and Terri! What are you two doing?"

Terri, "We're having a business meeting."

Mark, "It looks like you're doing pretty well."

Kristy, "What have you been doing since we got out of school?"

Mark, "I've been doing some modeling."

Terri, "Hey Kristy, he's right. Here he is in an ad for men's underwear."

Mark, "I wouldn't lie to you about it. Don't you think I am capable?"

Narrator: As Mark asks the question, he waves three of his friends over. They just happen to be JOHN KOSHINSKI, RANDY THOMS, and TONY LENCHNER.

Terri and Kristy, "Hi John, Randy, and Tony."

Kristy, "What have you guys been up to?"

John, "Well, I bought an I.G.A. store, and Randy and Tony are working for me."

Narrator: As John, Mark, Randy, and Tony go back to playing frisbee, Terri and Kristy continue their discussion.

Kristy, "Terri, look at this headline. It says REFORMED GIRL WATCHER BECOMES PRIEST, and it's written by JUDY "SCOOP" TAYLOR. It's about QUINT STEPHENSON."

Terri, "That's kind of hard to believe."

Kristy, "Here's another headline. DOCTOR AND NURSE TEAM COME UP WITH CURE FOR CANCER.

The doctor and nurse were ANNIE CASE and LARA CHAPMAN."

Terri, "I remember their talking about that."

Terri, "Look at this article about a daycare center opening up. The managers are TAMMI BEERY, SHARON MILLER, and BARBI TURNER."

Kristy, "I'm not surprised. They were real good friends in high school."

Terri, "I saw in the lobby of the Civic Center that there's an art show coming featuring TERRI BRANNON, CARRIE COON, JOHN WILLIAMS, AND LORI WOODWARD as artists."

Kristy, "Yeah, I heard about it on the news. I also heard that ALAN GOWLER, JEFF MANDRELL, and JOHN PARKER are playing major league baseball, and TOM KREUSER, KIP HOKE, and DARRIN FORT are on a pro-football team."

Terri, "Yeah, I saw MARY HAMPTON in the men's locker room interviewing them. Junior also announced the golf tournament scheduled for tonight. KENNY SUMNER, ALEX CALVERT, and RODNEY WOOLRIDGE are competing."

Kristy, "And on the women's side of sports I heard STACEY GOODALL and MINDY UNDERWOOD are playing on a pro-women's softball team."

Terri, "I also read in the paper that REGINA ISAAC and DEBBIE LONG are playing basketball."

Kristy, "All of those people were really athletic in high school."

Narrator: Later as they go for lunch at KFC we hear Terri say. . .

"I hear this place is under new owners."

Kristy, "Oh yeah! Who?"

Terri, "I heard it was LORI SUGG and JULIE SPRAGUE. From what I hear they gave up a wing and a leg to get into the business."

Kristy, "I saw that RANDY LOWE is the new manager now."

Narrator: When they get back to the beach they notice a volleyball game in session.

Terri, "Look over there, Kristy. Isn't that DENISE TORBERT and PAM FRY?"

Kristy, "Yeah. I saw them play on T.V. the other night."

Terri, "You know who came in yesterday to install the new telephones? BOBBY DAVIS. He's working for the phone company now."

Kristy, "Didn't he have his own phone out at the high school? It seems like he was always on it."

Terri, "The men came in to fix the computers the other day. You'll never guess who they were?"

Kristy, "CRAIG BERNDLEY and JOHN SPAUGH. I saw them come in."

Terri, "Look at that building over there that's being built. The architects and construction workers are BRIAN PISTER, SCOTT GAULTNEY, RICH PARKER, MIKE EDGE, JERRY BAUMGARTNER, and ERIC HALL."

Kristy, "A few of them were good with their hands 10 years ago, so this isn't a surprise."

Terri, "They built the center where Doctor Case and

Remember When? 1972

Nurse Chapman discovered the cure for cancer."

Narrator: During the discussion their conversation is interrupted by young kids screaming.

Terri, "I wonder what that's all about?"

Kristy, It looks as if someone has gotten cut by a piece of glass or something."

Terri, "Here comes the first aid people. Well, I'll be! That's KAREN BELANGEE, DONNA BRADSHAW, and LISA BRADY. Isn't that a coincidence!"

Kristy, "Well, I'm glad that's over. You know the other day when I went to the bank, you wouldn't believe how many people work there."

Terri, "Is that the First Baker Bank of Clinton?"

Kristy, "Yeah. CONNIE BAKER owns it now. RON-

ALD BATESON is a teller, DEBBIE BOSTWICK is a secretary, MARGIE RIDDLE works as a teller, and ANNIE LANGLEY also works as a teller."

Terri, "Isn't that odd that they'd all be working together?"

Kristy, "I called a secretarial pool to get some new secretaries, and they sent up TAMMY REES, STACY RITCHIE, CHRISTY TRENT, and JILL WAGNER. I just didn't think KIM INGRAM could handle all our business by herself. Especially since we're doing so much better."

Terri, "I heard someone say that LISA L'HOTE and MIKKI BOYUM came in asking if we ever had models in our ads."

Kristy, "Yeah, I told them no! Lisa told me that she and Kip got married not too long ago."

Terri, "Mikki told me that she got her hair fixed by SARA VAN FOSSEN. She got a scholarship to a college didn't she?"

Kristy, "I think I heard something like that."

Terri, "Listen to that song on the radio. Isn't that ANDY HARTSOCK?"

Kristy, "I think so. I hear he's a big time singer now."

Terri, "I hear DEBBIE TUGGLE and TONI MICHEL

are big time comedians now. They were always so funny.

Narrator: As they hear bells in the distance, we hear Kristy say. . .

"I wonder who's getting married?"

Terri, "I heard JANICE COENEN was getting married today."

Kristy, "There's been a lot of people from the class of '82 who got married. ANGIE BATESON, GENITA FOLLOWELL, RHONDA MIX, and MARCY NOLAN."

Terri, "I'm surprised there aren't more people married."

Kristy, "I went to Hardee's the other day and I saw BRENDA BATESON, KATHY HENDERSON, and BRAD RUEGER. I was surprised they were still there after 10 years."

Terri, "I heard they just got a raise to $4.50 now."

Kristy, "Did you see that new restaurant that opened two weeks ago. It's called The Silver Palace. It's owned by LARRY LUSTER, and I hear it's really classy."

Terri, "Is that the one SHARI HECKRODT, SUSAN REYNOLDS, BRENDA REID, and SHEILA ROBERTS are working at as waitresses?"

Kristy, "Yeah. And SUSIE MILTON is working as hostess for him. ALLEN SRONCE and WILLIAM STROHKIRCH are working as bartenders also."

Narr: As they listen to the radio we hear. . .

"Avid anti-Punk Rock demonstrators, led by ERIC DUNCAN, JAMIE KLINE, AND MARK UPTON, meet on Capital Hill in Washington, D.C.

Terri, "Do you believe that Kristy?"

Kristy, "Yes!"

"And on to the local news. TOM PLUNKETT and DOUG ROSSIO take over as Principal and Dean of Students of Clinton High School."

Kristy, "I guess the action got a little too hot to handle for Mr. Perkins and Mr. Henry."

Terri, "SANDY HOFFMAN took over her Mom's position as secretary, I hear."

Kristy, "I had to take my cock-a-poo in to the vet the other day, and I took it to the new clinic. I was surprised to see MARGIE RHODES sitting in the receptionist chair but was even more surprised to see DAVID BRANNON and KEVIN DANISON come walking in in white coats."

Terri, "I think I'd probably be surprised too."

Narrator: When they turn over to tan the other side, we hear Kristy mention. . .

"I have to stop and get gas before I go home."

Terri, "Go to Morris's Garage. It's owned by JEFF MORRIS. His mechanic is RICK HAGER, and I heard he is working on DIANE HARRIS'S race car."

Kristy, "They just got done with PAUL RAPP'S motorcycle didn't they?"

Terri, "Yeah. He needed it for the race this weekend. From what I hear, Rick worked on BRIAN TEDRICK and DWAYNE TERRY'S used cars a couple of days ago."

Kristy, "I saw it on the highway a couple of days ago, but I didn't know whose it was."

Narrator: While they are lying on their beach towels, a man comes and puts a sign up.

Terri, "The circus is coming to town, Kristy."

Kristy, "Did you know MATT FIELDS and RICK THOMAS are in it? Matt works on the flying trapeze, and Rick is a clown."

Terri, "Oh yeah, that surprises me."

Kristy, "I took my mom out to Short's Nursing Home the other day to visit a couple of her older friends. I never would have believed SHELIA SHORT would operate a nursing home."

Terri, "A friend of mine told me CAROLYN CHANDLER and NANCY STEPHENSON are working as nurses' aides there."

Kristy, "I met LAURA HUNT the other day, and she said that she's in charge of arranging parties at the nursing home."

Terri, "I hear they went fishing the other day. Laura said she stopped off to get bait and was surprised to see DOROTHY JACKSON out picking up worms for her bait shop."

Kristy, "I don't see how she can stand to pick them up."

Minutes later. . .

Kristy, "We ought to go to Disneyland sometime." I hear JANET REMPE is working there now as Coordinator."

Terri, "I've never been there so I may try it. I went horseback riding at the place next to Disneyland. It's called Peckingham's Stables. ZOE PECKINGHAM owns it."

Kristy, "I wonder when she decided to leave New York? Have you been to the new disco in town lately? It's really fun. JUDY RICKGAUER runs it, and when I was there it was a real blast."

Terri, "The last time I talked to Judy she was getting ready to open it up."

Kristy, "Did I tell you that I bought a new house? LEE ANN SPEASE, from Rockhold reality, helped me pick it out. It has a lot of computers in it, and they were all invented by KIRK TRUMMEL. He's a computer expert now."

Terri, "Did you hear on the radio that DAVID STRAIN is a 4 star General now? I heard he helped us win the arms race."

Kristy, "I didn't hear that. I did hear that RODNEY LONG and ROBERT SWEARINGEN are wrestlers for the Georgia championship now."

Terri, "Yeah. I heard they went to SUSAN MALTBY'S health spa to stay so strong."

Kristy, "Did you hear that TERESA ETHRIDGE is a baseball stat?"

Terri, "No. When did she start that?"

Kristy, "I don't really know that. I went to a college the other day to check on some courses for the business, and you'll never guess whom I say. BARRY McINTOSH. I guess I should say Prof. McIntosh. He's a college professor now."

Terri, "Really. I didn't even know he wanted to do anything like that."

Later. . .

Terri, "Oh, I was checking on lawyers for that lawsuit against us, and someone recommended JAMES FOLLOWELL."

Kristy, "As long as he's good you can hire him."

Terri, "I hear he's really good, so I guess he's the man for the job."

Narrator: While picking up their beach towels and bags, Terri and Kristy make plans for the next meeting.

Kristy, "Why don't we make the next meeting for 2 weeks from today?"

Terri, "It's fine with me as long as the sun is out."

Kristy, "Oh, by the way do you know what happened to DAN PRICE, DEBBIE ROBISON, KEVIN THAYER, CHRIS TOWNS, DAN WALLS, and ROBERT WOLF?"

Terri, "No, but maybe we'll find out at the reunion next weekend."

Kristy, "Well, I'll see you at work tomorrow."

Terri, "Okay. Bye."

157 Graduate on May 28

On May 28, the day seniors looked forward to all year, graduation finally arrived. As always it started with the band playing "Pomp and Circumstance," followed by the invocation. Next came the Senior Students' Welcome by Shelly Taubert followed by the band's rendition of "Exaltation." When the senior band graduates returned to their seats, David Cisco gave the Class President's Address. Following David was Tom Plunkett with remarks from the Student Council. Mr Perkins gave his final speech to the Senior class, and then the seniors went to the stage to receive their diplomas. Pastor Dale Mackey gave the Benediction, and the graduates walked out to "Pomp and Circumstance." One hundred and fifty seven seniors graduated from Clinton High School in the class of 1982.

Upper left, Kristy Thomas; lower left, Tom Plunkett; and right, David Cisco.

In closing, a very special thanks to Annie Case, Julie Olson, Lisa Mitchell, Mary Hampton, Jill Wagner, Margie Riddle, and Eddie Hubbell, who worked many long hours after school was over to complete the 1982 CLINTONIA.

Mrs. Wunderlich, Adviser
